In the Beginning

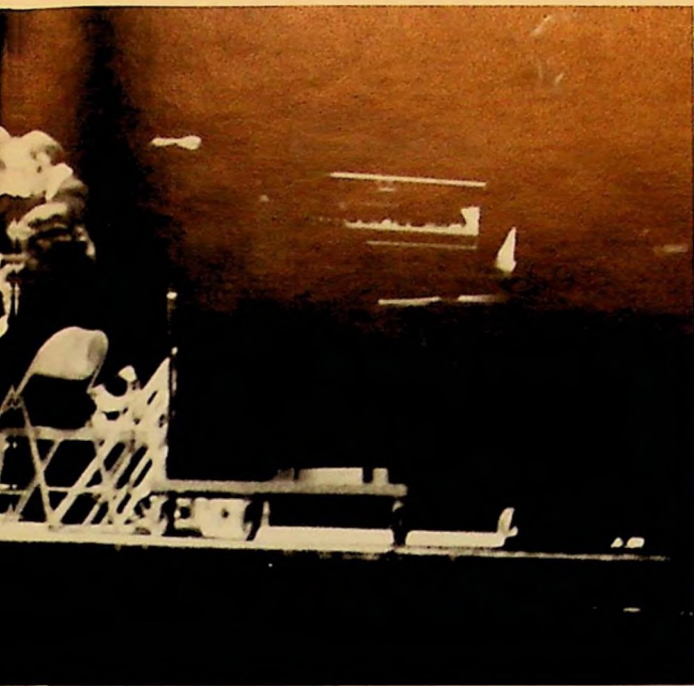

Professor Richard Terry advises Pam Free on her freshman class choices.

Julie Fritsch participates in a requirement not listed in the line schedule — unpacking.

The parents of Christi Hooper participate in the ritual of waiting for their daughter during fall registration.

In a Triumphant Sound skit during orientation week, Denise Wren explains Bible college life to a skeptical Deana Blackwell.

ROMANS

8:28-31

And we know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, those who are called according to His purpose. For whom He foreknew, He also predestined to become conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brethren:

And whom He predestined, these He also called; and whom he called, these He also justified; and whom He justified, these He also glorified.

What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, Who is against us?

Brian Smith at the Fall Festival of Faith.

David and Karen Burke at FFF.

CANDID CAMPUS

Hiram Cassel and President Lown enjoy the food and fellowship of the ice cream social.

Professor Sullivan "Acts" out another lecture in History of Christian Beginnings.

Besides teaching several classes, Professor Mullin (alias Billy Grammar) also tapes MCC's chapels, concerts, seminars, recitals, lectureships, and conventions.

CHAPEL

Dr. LeRoy Lawson visited the MCC campus twice during the 1980-81 academic year. He was the speaker for the Athearn Lectures early in December and returned to speak at the Preaching Convention in March 1981.

Special music was provided by Jeff Spielman at one of the Thursday morning chapel services. He played "Praise the Lord" on the trombone.

A year of edifying chapel services was opened by Dr. James Fuzzell, who spoke on missions and opportunities in New Zealand on August 26, 1980.

The messages heard in the chapel touch the heart and strengthen the soul of the hearer.

On October 9, 1980, Mr. Mullin used Mark 5:1-20 as his text, the subject was "Reincarnation versus Regeneration."

FALL FESTIVAL OF FAITH

MCC held its third annual Fall Festival of Faith, November 14 and 15, 1980.

Designed for high school students from churches in Kansas and area states, the Festival featured an evening banquet, concert, sessions, and a Campus carnival.

Doug Ingmire, Youth Minister of the Norton Christian Church in Norton, Kansas, was the speaker.

A Festival Banquet was held on Nov. 14 at the Houston Street Restaurant. Following the banquet, "Triumphant Sound", Manhattan Christian College's select nine-member touring ensemble, presented a full concert. Celebration Singers performed Saturday, Nov. 15, in the morning session at All Faiths' Chapel on the KSU campus.

Highlighting the Festival Saturday was the Campus Carnival, which had a ferris wheel, Scat ride, a tent show, booth, music, and concession. A final session at 1:30 p.m. closed the festivities.

Opposite page:

Festival attendees gathered at the All-Faiths' Chapel for the main sessions

Guests enjoyed the banquet held on Friday evening at the Houston Street Restaurant in downtown Manhattan

This page:

Doug Ingmire spoke at the main sessions.

Members of the MCC family and our visitors for the Festival participated in and enjoyed the Campus Carnival held on the frosty Saturday morning

ACTIVITIES

In a game against Faith Baptist, Rafael Inchaustegui takes off after the ball.

The Christmas Ring included a special rendition of the twelve days of Christmas. Denise Wren, Karla Kunze, and Vana Schipper were the three French hens.

The Student Council officers gathered before a meeting. Avid fans of the MCC Basketball team — Mr. Cassel, Mr. Clowe, and President Lown — keep their eyes on the action.

Executive officers are Henry Kozlowski, Karen Burke, Tom Walters, Denise Wren, Les Palich, Pam Patterson, and Cam Deemer.

VISION STAFF

A few individuals contributed their efforts at various times of the year to produce this year's Vision. Barry Farr and David Hamilton worked in the darkroom; Leah Schipper (camera in front of face) served as part-time photographer and as editor for seven months; Laurie Foster and Chris Allen (not pictured) worked on layouts; Mark Holland worked first semester, and Professor Mullin produced the final forms of the layouts

MISSION EMPHASIS WEEK

Tā Ethne sponsored this year's Mission Emphasis Week. Dr. Mont Smith (top) spoke on theology of missions, Bible colleges' responsibilities to missions, and the growing unsaved population.

Don Johnson (bottom) spoke on prayer and the Great Commission, and the responsibility of the church and of her leaders to missions.

WINTER BANQUET

December 5, 1980, was the date; Sirloin Stockade was the place. Evangel presented the special music for the evening.

BENEFIT DINNER

A record crowd attended this year's dinner, held on November 7, 1980.

Once again, Larry and Bob Limbocker provided the ice sculpture and an excellent meal.

Dr. Russ Blowers delivered the address; he is shown at the left, holding a folder, in the only available photo of him.

YESTERDAY ONCE MORE

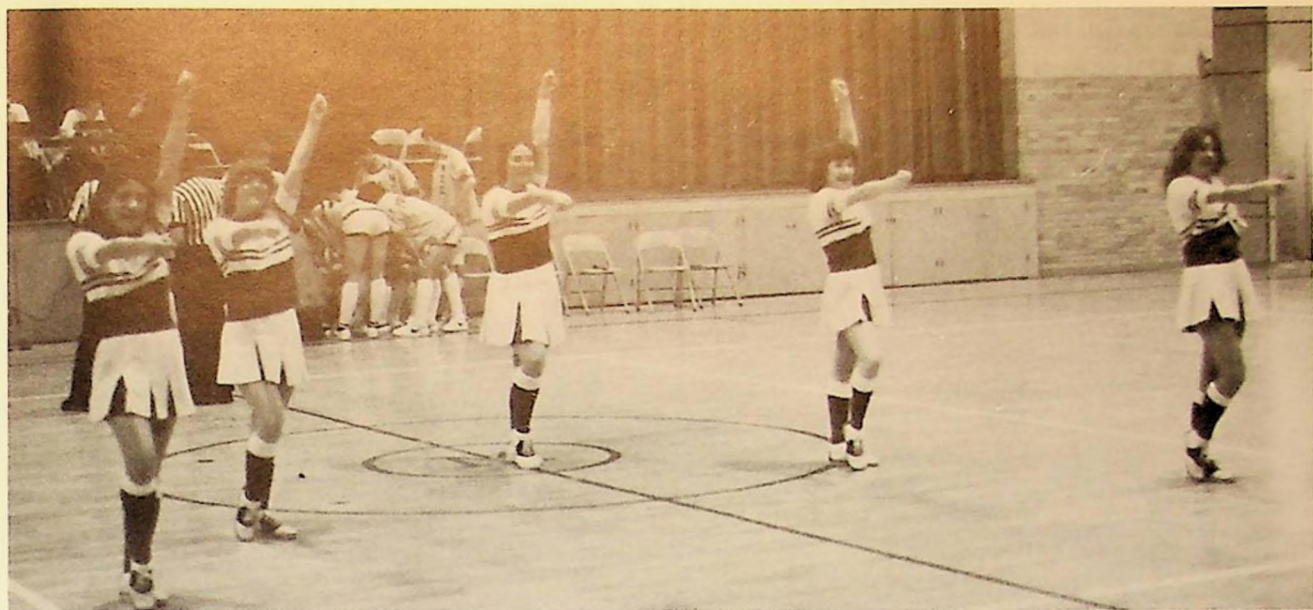

We of Manhattan Christian College — administration, faculty, staff, and students — have been sent by special delivery. We have been commissioned to send a special message in every form possible to the uttermost parts of the earth.

"Therefore, since we have so great a cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let us also lay aside every encumbrance
and the sin which so easily entangles us;
and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the Author and Perfector of faith, who for the joy set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.
